California Courts on Twitter

The screenshot shows a Twitter profile for California Courts (@CalCourts) with a blue verified badge. The profile picture is the official seal of the California Judicial Branch. The bio states: "Judicial Council Approves $25 Million for Court Technology Projects" followed by a truncated link "newsroom.courts.ca.gov/news/judicial-...". Below the bio is a large, empty rectangular placeholder for a tweet image. At the bottom of the placeholder, a text preview is visible, starting with "Judicial Council Approves $25 Million for Court Technology Projects" and followed by a truncated paragraph: "The proposal from the council's Technology Committee included 13 major areas of investment to receive budget funds allocated to modernize court". A vertical scrollbar is visible on the right side of the tweet area.
